

Changing Times & Changing Lives

The Unveiling and Dedication Ceremony for the East Tennessee State University Commemorative Fountain and Historic Marker

March 25, 2013

Honoring the five students who desegregated East Tennessee State College, now ETSU

Changing Times & Changing Lives

East Tennessee State University

Commemorative Fountain and Historic Marker Committee

Dr. Dorothy Drinkard-Hawkshawe, Chair
ETSU Professor of History and Director, African and African American Studies Program
Mary Alexander, Chair, Langston Heritage Group, Johnson City, TN
Mary Jordan, Special Assistant to the President for Equity and Diversity
Dr. Angela Lewis, Associate Dean and Professor, Claudius G. Clemmer College of Education
Fred Sauceman, Senior Writer and Associate Professor of Appalachian Studies / News Director, WETS-FM/HD
Laura Terry, Director of Multicultural Affairs

The committee wishes to extend special thanks to:

Shawn Benson, Director of Campus Planning
Dr. Wilsie Bishop, Vice President for Health Affairs and University Chief Operating Officer
Dr. Brian Noland, President
Joe Smith, Interim Executive Assistant to the President for University Relations
Dr. Paul Stanton, President Emeritus

Design and Construction Team

Preston Construction
Carol R. Johnson Associates Landscape Architects
Facility Systems Consultants LLC
White's Marble Works
Nor-well Co. Incorporated
Gardner Paint Services
Delta Fountains
ETSU Facilities Management

